

Boost your vocabulary

PERSONALITY

Complète les phrases suivantes avec l'adjectif adéquat.

- a) She always tells the truth. She is a/an ..... / ..... woman.
- b) She's very ..... / ..... / ..... She is the best student in the whole school.
- c) He always wears colourful and weird outfits. His style is very .....
- d) She knows what she wants in life. She is very .....
- e) Most of the time, Sherlock Holmes works alone. He is very .....
- f) He is not humble at all, in fact he is quite .....
- g) He is very ..... / ..... He can never find anything in his office.

INVESTIGATION

1- A) Trouve le nom correspondant à chaque définition.

- a) A person guilty of an offense or a crime : .....
- b) Someone who is believed to be guilty, but not with certainty : .....
- c) A person who is able to describe what happened : .....
- d) A piece of curved glass that makes objects look larger than they are : .....
- e) The proof that someone who is a suspect of a crime couldn't have done it : .....

B) À ton tour de proposer une définition.

- a detective : .....
- a footprint : .....
- a robber : .....

2- Associe chaque mot de la colonne de gauche à son synonyme dans la colonne de droite.

to interrogate •	• to collect evidence
to find a clue •	• to find the culprit
to look for •	• to cross-examine
to solve a case •	• to search
to be honest •	• to steal
to rob •	• to attest, to swear
to testify •	• to be straightforward

3- Complète ces phrases avec un des verbes de l'exercice 2. N'oublie pas de le conjuguer au besoin !

- a) Sherlock Holmes had all the information he needed to ..... the culprit.
- b) After ten months, he finally managed to ..... the case.
- c) He needs to ..... evidence if he wants to solve the case.
- d) The witness ..... in court that he saw the crime.
- e) The detective will ..... all the suspects tomorrow morning.

